8-97161198-0 Air conditioning pulley with bracket Suitable for ISUZU 700P/4HK1 models, it provides a stable support for the air conditioning pulley and ensures precise pulley operation. It transmits power efficiently and keeps the air conditioning system working properly. For example, it prevents the pulley from shaking or shifting during long periods of vehicle operation, so that the air conditioner continues to cool stably. Even in the face of bumps on complex road conditions, the reliability of the air-conditioning pulley's work can be guaranteed.
